All tasks, work, and/or procedures must be performed under the direct supervision of a Full Practice MRT who is certified in the same specialty. The provisional registrant must not be the sole person responsible for any work performed.

3. Restrictions on Supervisory Duties

A provisional registrant is not permitted to supervise, train, or oversee other employees under any circumstances.

4. Validity of Registration

Provisional registration remains valid until the earlier of:

- receipt of the applicant's certification exam results, or
- the registration's stated expiry date.

5. Exam Result Requirements

- If successful: The registrant must apply for Full Practice registration as a certified MRT.
- If unsuccessful:
 - The provisional registrant must cease all duties immediately.
 - The registrant must contact the NBRCMRT to determine eligibility for a registration extension.
 - Return to duties is not permitted until an extension has been formally approved.

6. Definition of Direct Supervision

As defined within the regulations:

“Direct supervision” means supervision by a full practice registrant on the same premises or in close proximity to the individual being supervised such that the individual under supervision may receive direction and guidance without undue delay and can also include supervision at a distance, through electronic means such as interactive video, audio, computer and telecommunications technology where the contact is in real time and interactive.”
